

A diagram illustrating the equation $x = \begin{bmatrix} \text{blue box} \\ \text{blue box} \end{bmatrix}$. On the left, a white square with a thick black border contains the variable x . In the center is an equals sign. On the right, a vertical stack of two identical light blue squares is enclosed within a thick blue border, representing a column vector of two components.